

Sing Me A Song

Sam Rizzetta © 2011

The musical score is written in treble clef with a common time signature (C). It consists of two staves. The first staff contains the first line of music with lyrics: "Sing me a song when I'm gone. Sing me a song when I'm gone. I will". Above the notes are chord symbols: C, G, C, F, C. The second staff contains the second line of music with lyrics: "leave this earth in grace with a smile u-pon my face, if you'll sing me a song when I'm gone." Above the notes are chord symbols: F, Em, C, G, C. A measure number '5' is placed at the beginning of the second staff.

chorus: Sing me a song when I'm gone. Sing me a song when I'm gone.

I will leave this earth in grace with a smile upon my face, if you'll sing me a song when I'm gone.

I've had the blues each day without you, and hard times I've had quite a few.

I miss your smiling face, your cheer I can't replace. I've had the blues each day without you.

Oh the wind and the waves how they roll. The chilly winds how they do blow.

But I know my course is true, and I'm coming home to you. Oh the wind and the waves how they roll.

Oh the storm clouds will pass bye and bye, and sunshine will gladden the sky.

I will sing a happy song, for I know it won't be long. The storm clouds will pass bye and bye.
